

What Shall I Do?

from "Dioclesian" Beaumont and Fletcher

Arranged for Voice and Guitar
by Richard PICK

Henry PURCELL
1658-1695

Andante

5

What shall I do to show how much I love her?
Since Gods them - selves could not ev - ver be lov - ing,

9

How man - y millions ... of sighs can suf fice?
Men must have breath ing re - cruits for new joys;

13

That which wins oth - er hearts ne - ver can move her;
I wish my love could be al - ways im - prov - ing,

17

Those com - mon meth - ods of love she'll des - pise.
 Though ea - ger love more than sor - row des - troys. I will love
 In fair Aur -

22

more than man ev - er lov'd be - fore me, Gaze on her all the day and e - lia's arm leavc me ex - pir - - ing, To be em - balm'd by the 27

meet all the night; Till for her own sake at last she'll im - sweets of her breath; To the last mo - ment I'll still be de - plore me To love her less to pre - serve our de - light.

32

 sir - ing Ne - ver had he - ro so glo - rious a death.