2. What heart can long such pains abide,
Fie upon this love,
I would adventure far and wide,
If it would remove,
But love will still my steps pursue,
I cannot his ways eschew, Thus still helpless hopes I prove.

3. I do my love in lines commend,
But alas in vain,
The costly gifts that I do send,
She returns again.
Thus still is my despair procur'd,
And her malice more assur'd,
Then come Death and end my pain.

Poema:

Bernardo Artola

En tus ojos se ha dormido una estrellita del cielo.
Déjame besar tus ojos para ver si la despierto

Vienen a velar la luna para develar tu sueño.
vienen a velar tu frente con su lírico misterio

Es primavera y las nubes han venido de lo lejos por la senda perfumada de la rosa de los vientos

Yo también a ti he llegado y temblando me atrevo a despertar tu estrellita que está en tus ojos durmiendo.
